

Release OXA

OXA name explanation

O = Represents everything that exists in Male energy in nature

A = Represents everything that exists in Feminine energy in nature

X = Represents my soul/Body transiting through these energies

Binary Genre

OXA discovered early on its passion for dancing and singing. They achieved their first success with their participation in the dance show "Que Viva - os Eselectos!" OXA managed to assert itself among 40,000 candidates and won the show. Then they shared the stage with Jennifer Lopez for four months for her residency in Las Vegas.

In 2015 they moved to Hamburg, Germany, to be on stage for the musical „Tarzan“, followed by „Lion King“ and the lead role Lola in „Kinky Boots“. In 2018 they came to audition for „The Voice of Germany“, because they finally wanted a platform where the whole world could see them. Their outstanding performances, combined with their voice and friendliness, made the audience fall in love with them and made them reach the semifinals. Especially the moving and impressive performance of "Born This Way" by Lady Gaga remained in the memory of many viewers, in the year 2020 she had a success composing a song where she could represent Brazil in one of the biggest music festivals in the world ,” El Diablo ” music written by OXA made its entrance into EUROVISION with the country of Cyprus, since then it has been building and defending its LGBTQIA+ community with its music and performances, OXA believes in the power of music to change critical and political thinking for a light future and full of art!